AND MANY OTHER POINTS.

El Pasos Will Scatter to the Four Winds For Summer Vacations

Great Majority of them will go to California and the Beaches, but Many Will go to Cloudcroft and Others Will Scatter to All Points of the Compass—Some Prefer Staying Right Here in El Paso.

EL PASOANS will scatter to the four points of the compass for their annual vacations this summer, but California will get the majority of them. Other sections of the country will each receive their share of El Pasos and Cloudcroft will have a large quota, as usual, but California and the beach resorts will land the majority.

Going Back East. E. G. Perry, accompanied by Mrs. Perry and child, will take a trip back through the central states on their vacation, beginning about July 1. They will visit Chicago, Washington and New York and a few other large cities, and, of course, they will take a run down to the home at Memphis, which when they left it was still in the state of Tennessee.

Louis Ehrer says that he will spend his summer vacation in the best summer resort city in the country, which is spelled El Paso.

Going to California. Sam Blumenthal is going out to California to find out why they built the ocean so close to the shore. Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Joomie will leave El Paso about June 1. They are going to California to visit their son, who is a naval cadet at Annapolis, Md., and to see the sights of the state.

William K. Ramsey is going back to Arkansas. Not any particular place there, just somewhere that "feels good." He will start about June 15 and will get back, well, that depends on the fishing. J. P. O'Connor has no particular place in view, but he will have a vacation just like everyone else. He may go to Cloudcroft to see how much the trees have grown since last year.

H. D. McGregor expects to be so busy selling motor cars that he will not get to any other place for vacation. Then he will go, well, he will go somewhere.

Will Motor in California. President V. R. Stiles, of the chamber of commerce, is going with his family to California, on the train, but when he gets there he will receive a brand new Buick car from the factory and will spend the time motoring. He expects to drive back.

H. H. Rinehart is figuring on motoring to California during the summer. G. A. Martin and wife will go to California and the Grand canyon in July.

Going to Cloudcroft. H. D. Slater and family will open their Cloudcroft cottage about June 1 and spend the summer among the pines. Mrs. Slater and Johnny Mack will return from Washington in a few days.

Going to the Coast. In one of the boats of Stanley Good will leave for Los Angeles, Cal. He expects to be away a month on his vacation during which time he will visit the coast city at Coronado, and from there will go to San Francisco. Roy Barnum, county auditor, will spend a part of his vacation taking in the convention of the Knights Templar, which order will convene during August at Denver, Colo. The auditor will be gone a month. Miss Narine Barnum, his sister, will leave June 5 for Oberlin, O., where she will spend her vacation.

Going to Mountain. Mrs. J. L. Ponder, wife of county treasurer Ponder, will spend the summer at Mountain Park, N. M. The county treasurer will spend his summer vacation in making round trips to Mountain Park to see Mrs. Ponder and the children. Mrs. Ponder will leave for Mountain Park some time in June.

Some time in June county clerk Park Pittman will leave for Mineral Wells, Tex., where he will spend his vacation in taking baths.

Assistant county attorney W. J. Bryan will spend the month of June, his vacation, on the Bryan ranch near Las Cruces, N. M.

To Wisconsin Lakes. Deputy county auditor R. E. Rocha, including a stop over at Pecon city, Tex., will spend his vacation at the Wisconsin lakes. He will leave some time in June on the trip. It is reported that his vacation will be a honeymoon trip.

Mrs. M. H. Avery will spend the summer vacation at Mountain Park, N. M., leaving on the trip the early part of June.

H. W. Broadbent is going to have several vacation trips. His family will go to Cloudcroft, where they have a cottage in the pines, near the lodge, and H. W. will run up to New York to see the steamers come in from Europe.

To Long Beach, Cal. James L. Marr will go to Long Beach, Cal., in the middle of July. There he will join Mrs. Marr, and together they will spend the summer in California.

Lamar Davis and family are going back to Alaska about the middle of July. After spending a little time there, they will take a run up to New York to see the steamers come in from Europe.

To San Jose, Cal. T. J. Cassidy is going out to San Jose, Cal., to spend a little while with his family. He will probably make the trip in July.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morrison and little daughter, Irene, will go to Welland, Ontario, Canada, about Aug. 1, and there they will spend some time with Mr. Morrison's mother.

Mrs. P. D. Hadlock and daughters, Misses Ruby, Opal and Minnie Lee, and son Damon, expect to leave June 15 for Los Angeles, Calif., where two weeks will be spent. From there the trip to Catalina Islands will be made.

Justice of the peace James J. Murphy expects to leave on his summer vacation some time in July. The justice is going back to his old home, Downsville, Mich. Mrs. Murphy will leave for Downsville in June.

To See Ball Games for Vacation. Justice of the peace E. B. McClintock expects to spend his summer vacation, Saturday, at least, at Washington park where there is a ball game every day. He will leave for Long Beach, Calif., where he will visit his daughter, Mrs. L. V. E.

R. A. Harris, park commissioner, and Mrs. Harris expect to leave for Los Angeles and other California points some time in June. They will be away 30 days.

Going to California. Z. O. Hart, chief clerk of the El Paso del Norte Hotel company, will spend the summer, but Mrs. Hart and daughter will go to California for the summer.

S. G. Humphries, president of the El Paso del Norte Hotel company, will spend the greater part of the summer at Cloudcroft supervising the conduct of the lodge there. Mrs. Humphries will have a suite of rooms at the lodge and will spend the summer there.

Mrs. Edgar Kayser and son, Edgar, Jr., will go to California and the beach during the latter part of the summer.

Mrs. Francis C. Spencer, wife of manager Spencer of the Fred Harvey curio shop, will go to her home in Austin, Minn., to show her parents little Miss Frances, their three months old daughter. Summer in Cloudcroft. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Coles will spend the entire summer at Cloudcroft, where they have one of the first cottages ever built on the mountains.

O. C. Coles will visit his family at Rome, Georgia, where Mrs. Coles and Otis, Jr., are now visiting Mrs. Coles's parents.

To Tour Southwest. Charles R. Stevens and family will spend a part of their summer at the Casa Arenas cottage at Cloudcroft, and the remainder of their vacation in their big touring car in the southwest.

H. B. Stevens will be at Cloudcroft for the greater part of the summer. Mrs. Stevens and son, Philip, are now visiting in Bristol, R. I., but will return after the opening of the Cloudcroft season for the season there. She will be accompanied by her son, who has been in school in the east.

At Mountain Park. J. G. McNary and J. S. Barnard will be at the Mountain Park summer home. Mr. McNary making trips to Mountain Park each week for the Sunday.

Frank R. Tobin is planning to go to California for a long vacation at the beach.

To California. Miss Hallie is going to California for the summer and will visit friends. She will be away about a month.

Miss Bertha Stanhope will go to Los Angeles, where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Healy are planning to visit in Cloudcroft for a part of the summer.

To Visit Thousand Islands. District attorney W. W. Bridges will spend a part of his summer vacation visiting the Thousand Islands of St. Lawrence river. Mrs. Bridges and daughter, Miss Sarah Bridges, will leave for the islands about June 1.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brink, who were formerly connected with the office of A. P. Coles & Bros., Miss Henn will go in June, and will spend a month as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brink.

Mrs. Samuel Blumenthal will join her daughter, Louise, in Los Angeles. Mr. Blumenthal will go there later in the summer for his vacation.

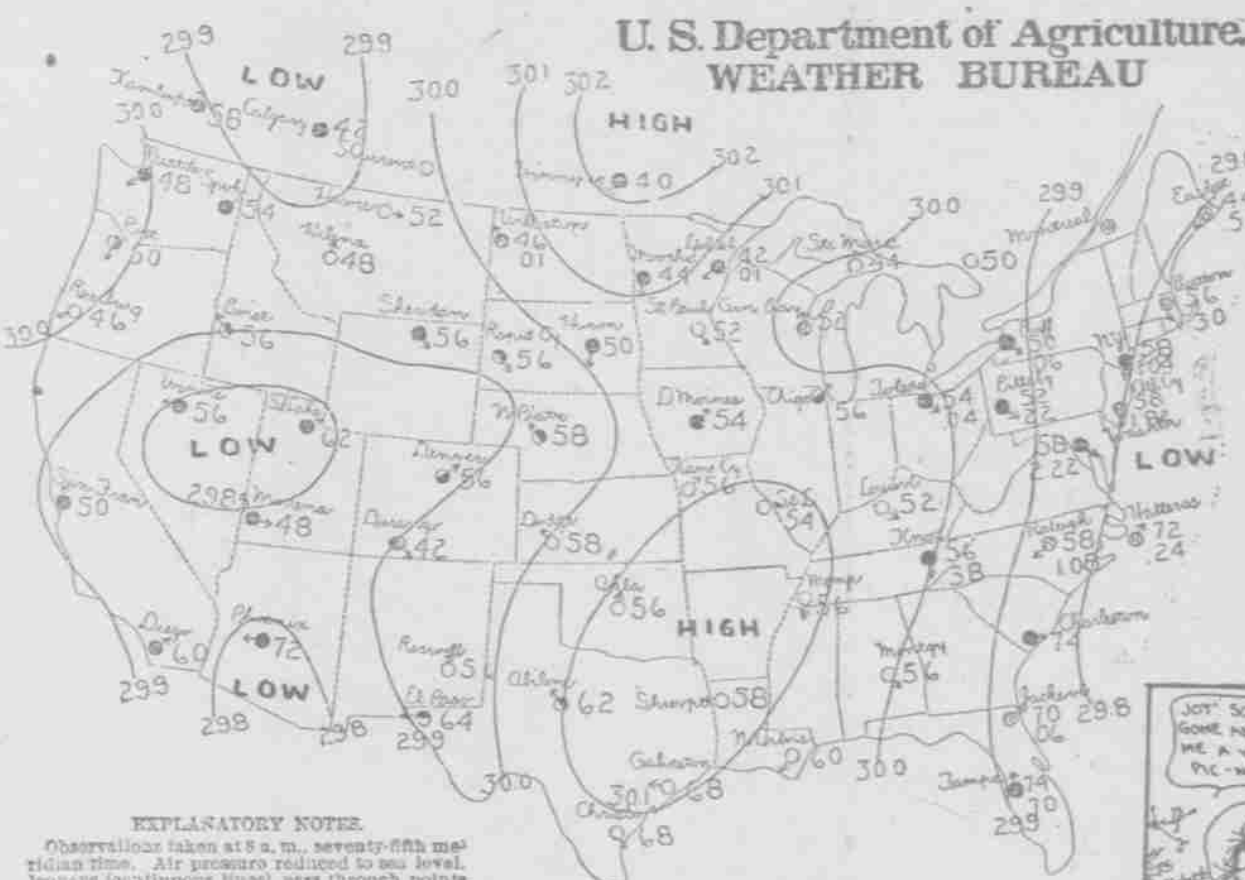

Will Visit Hollywood. Miss Marie Henn will go to Hollywood, Cal., to visit John Brink, "Uncle John," who was formerly connected with the office of A. P. Coles & Bros. Miss Henn will go in June, and will spend a month as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brink.

Plans Busy Vacation. County judge A. S. J. Elyar expects to spend his summer vacation traveling up and down the county roads under construction, visiting the different road gangs and seeing that the foremen keep on the job.

W. B. Ware and Mrs. Ware have been to California and the beach, and will spend a summering spot after July 1, remaining there a month before they return to El Paso.

Suggests "Stay at Home Vacation." A Schwartz has suggested a "spend your vacation and your money in El Paso or Cloudcroft campaign, to keep the thousands of dollars of good El Paso money at home instead of sending it to California or the northern summer resorts.
